I. About UNFPA

UNFPA, the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA), is an international development agency that works to deliver a world where every pregnancy is wanted, every child birth is safe and every young person's potential is fulfilled.

UNFPA is the lead UN agency that expands the possibilities for women and young people to lead healthy sexual and reproductive lives.

The 2030 Agenda states in its preamble that the Sustainable Development Goals and its targets seek to realize the human rights of all and to achieve gender equality and the empowerment of all women and girls. They are integrated and indivisible and balance the three dimensions of sustainable development: the economic, social and environmental.

Realizing human rights, gender equality and the empowerment of women and girls, with focus on the vulnerable girls, will make a crucial contribution to progress across all the Goals and targets.
